NOTE A BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

SLCA Capital, LLC ("the Company") maintains its accounts on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Accounting principles followed by the Company and the methods of applying those principles, which materially affect the determination of financial position, results of operations and cash flows, are summarized below:

Description of Business – The Company, located in Houston, Texas, is a private investment banking firm. The Company has claimed an exemption from the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Rule 15c3-3 under section (K)(2)(i). The Company is registered as a Broker-Dealer with the SEC, and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company was admitted as a member of FINRA in January 2012.

Statement Presentation – The unclassified statement of financial condition is presented in accordance with industry standards.

Cash and Cash Equivalents – The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

FINRA Flex Account – As is customary with broker-dealers, the Company maintains funds on deposit with FINRA which are used to pay various registration related fees and expenses.

Due From Registered Representative – The Company records amounts due from registered representatives for regulatory fees and recurring charges for expense sharing. An allowance for doubtful accounts was not considered necessary as of December 31, 2017.

Revenue Recognition – Financial advisory fees and retainers are recognized in accordance with the terms contained in the Company's written engagement agreements. Placement agent fees and other transaction related success fees are recognized when transactions close and receivables are recorded at that time.

Income Taxes – No provision has been made for federal income tax, since these taxes are the responsibility of the member. State margin tax is accrued and is included as a component of other expense, as required.

The Company believes that all significant tax positions utilized by the Company will more likely than not be sustained upon examination. As of December 31, 2017, the tax years that remain subject to examination by the major tax jurisdictions under the statute of limitations are from the year 2014 forward (with limited exceptions). Tax penalties and interest, if any, would be accrued as incurred and would be classified as tax expense in the statements of operations.

Estimates – The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events – The Company has evaluated subsequent events through January 29, 2018 the date the financial statements were available to be issued. No events have occurred, which require adjustment or disclosure to the financial statements, subsequent to December 31, 2017.

NOTE B NATURE OF BUSSINESS

In 2017 there was a change in the equity ownership of the firm. The Next Raise Holdings, LLC (“Next Raise”) purchased the membership interest in the Company from Shoreline Capital Advisors, Inc. Next Raise is strictly a holding company and the Company does not conduct business on behalf of Next Raise. Next Raise is owned 50% by Michael S. Chadwick, 25% by George C Woods and 25% by WLW Investment Trust, of which Warren Williams and Jane Williams are co-trustees. The Trust was created for the purpose of receiving contributions made by the Woodhill Financial Group, Ltd. Solo 401k Plan. The Company is under common control with Woodhill Financial Group, Ltd., which provides consulting services and conducts financial advisory services. Should a client relationship evolve into a securities transaction, such transaction will be assigned to the Company.

NOTE C NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital, as defined under such provisions. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis.

At December 31, 2017, the Company had net capital of $12,705, and a net capital requirement of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital as of December 31, 2017 was .08 to 1. The Securities and Exchange Commission permits the aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio for the Company at this time to be no greater than 15 to 1.

NOTE D CONCENTRATIONS AND CREDIT RISK

The Company's bank balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000. It is the Company's practice to utilize high net worth financial institutions to minimize its credit risk.

NOTE E COMMITMENTS

In the course of its business, the Company enters into independent contractor agreements with registered representatives ("Contractors"). These agreements typically require the Contractor to reimburse the Company for regulatory fees incurred on their behalf and to pay the Company a fixed amount per month as a contribution towards operating expenses of the broker-dealer. These agreements require the Company to pay the Contractor a percentage of the revenue generated by them which is reflected in the Statements of Operations as "Compensation paid to other registered representatives". As of December 31, 2017, there were no amounts due to other registered representatives.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the board of SLCA CAPITAL, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) SLCA CAPITAL, LLC identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which SLCA CAPITAL, LLC claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3:(k)(2)(i), (the "exemption provisions") and (2) SLCA CAPITAL, LLC stated that SLCA CAPITAL, LLC met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. SLCA CAPITAL, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about SLCA CAPITAL, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
